BLUEBERRY

Suitable for the treatment of reddened, fragile and sensitive skins. In fact plays a soothing action on the delicate and prone to redness skin, protecting its balance, strengthening its natural defenses and improving its appearance.

ROSA CENTIFOLIA WATER

The combination of its constituent elements such as flavonoids and pectins gives the Rosa Centifolia Water important antioxidant and moisturizing properties. Pectins have the ability to absorb significant amounts of water holding it inside them and releasing it by degrees, whereas flavonoids protect dermis structure from external aggressions. Skin thus becomes more elastic and moisturized over time.

BISABOLOL

Thanks to its soothing properties, it is particularly indicated in the treatment of sensitive and delicate skin. It contrasts indeed inflammation, redness and irritation of all kinds. Also indicated in the treatment of skin diseases, such as atopic and seborrheic dermatitis and in cases of skin pigmentation disorder, such as solar lentigo, lentigo senili and melasma.

ALLANTOIN

A fundamental molecule for the health of the dermis. Rich in antioxidant, soothing, moisturizing and repairing substances, it protects the skin from the harmful aggressions of free radicals, preventing normal skin aging. It nourishes it in depth and stimulates its physiological cellular self-regeneration, keeping it young over time.

COLLAGEN

A fundamental molecule for the health of connective tissue. It exerts an important moisturizing and supporting action on the skin, improving tone and elasticity and thus preventing wrinkles appearance.
